

A STAR ON THE SCENE

Surrounded by tranquil Swiss countryside and with its own Michelin-starred restaurant, the Relais & Châteaux Mammertsberg embodies refined sophistication

For more than 100 years the Mammertsberg has overlooked the glittering waters of Lake Constance, the snow-covered mountains of Austria and Liechtenstein, and the Appenzell Alps. In the attractive Swiss Canton of Thurgau, surrounded by apple trees and rapeseed fields, your hosts August and Luisa Minikus celebrate the very highest levels of service and the warmest hospitality.

The newly renovated Relais & Châteaux Mammertsberg reflects tradition and modernity in its architecture as well as on its menu. The creative kitchen, fine wines, breathtaking views and unique architecture are all part of an outstanding experience. August Minikus and his team relish the daily challenge of creating outstanding dishes, driven by creativity, passion and supreme skill. The foundation of the cooking is the freshness and quality of the ingredients, which is sourced from local farmers whenever possible.

“August Minikus and his team relish the daily challenge of creating outstanding dishes

Indeed, the food at the Relais & Châteaux Mammertsberg is so good that it currently holds one Michelin Star and 17 Gault Millau points. Sommelier Luisa Minikus is devoted to her passion for wine. She is supported by her team who pride themselves on their warm, attentive and discreet service.

You can enjoy a range of fine dining at the Mammertsberg. On balmy summer days you are invited to savour an aperitif in the tranquil garden followed by dinner on the terrace with a wonderful view. On cooler days the lounge with its comfortable leather armchairs is perfect for an aperitif before lunch or dinner. The restaurant Escale is located in the old building, while the Monolith in the new.

If you would like to watch the chef and his team at work, then you are invited to visit the open kitchen in the passageway between the old and new buildings.

Those who love to savour an aromatic cigar and a fine spirit will feel entirely at home in the luxurious Esprit Lounge. It's the perfect place to relax, unwind and while away the hours, you may also like to look around the hotel's beautiful cellar.

Indulge in a culinary treat in the gourmet restaurant, recharge your batteries in the hotel's luxurious suites or celebrate a special occasion. Above all, relax and enjoy a memorable stay at the Relais & Châteaux Mammertsberg. *

Further information
www.mammertsberg.ch

